Phone ringing:

1:26 – Answering Machine picks up

Noelle: That was weird.

Det. Sergeant James Wilson: Ok, he did not answer the phone, no message was left. I am now ending the recording.

Track #2

June 18, 2014 the time is approximately 11:38 a.m.

I'm in the interview room at the Detective Division. My name is Detective Sergeant James Wilson, I'm in the room with Noelle Feldman, we're about to place a controlled recorded phone call to Dr. William Knack, to his cell phone which is 914-874-3455. This is regarding case 14-56.

Ok. Put that in your ear.

:50 Phone ringing (whispering – inaudible)

1:03

Dr. Knack: Hello there

Noelle: Hi

Dr. Knack: How are you?

Noelle: Uh, I'm ok, I guess

Dr. Knack: I saw you – your other missed call. I wasn't sure that was just a mistake or uh, if you were actually reaching out

Noelle: Well I am reaching out

Dr. Knack: So, tell me a little bit about what's going on? How you doing?

Noelle: Well, good and bad because, good because I've been going to a lot of meetings and I have a sponsor and I'm working like on my 4th step now for a while

1:45

Dr. Knack: Uh huh, that 4th step is usually a hard uh, a hard time

Noelle: Yeah, and it really has been. Especially because, like, you know I don't – I don't know – I just (sigh) I really don't want to talk to her about what happened in your office

2:09

Dr. Knack: Uh hum

Noelle: But I need some closure

Dr. Knack: Okay, okay

Noelle: And, uh, I just, I really – I don't know, I'm having a hard time with it – I – I – I really – You know I told you I – at – at the first session I said I don't think I could ever trust a man

Dr. Knack: Um, hum

Noelle: And I did - ??? trust you, but you know - I feel like, I do feel like you owe me an apology

2:51

Dr. Knack: Well, you know, I would like to talk this through with you. I was – I was kind of shocked when I got your letter – um – you know, and a little frightened too because I felt like I could trust you - you know, and then there was a – you know, we talked about a lot of stuff, I mean, nothing, nothing just happened. There was a lot of discussion about – about all of this. So I would like to be able to talk it through with you, um, but you know – I need to know that you're ok with doing that.

Noelle: Well, yeah, I need to work through this. I mean I can't – I've been really a mess about this and -

3:45

Dr. Knack: Um hum

Noelle: When you said to me about – that time you told me like when I was having a really hard time and you said well is it because of me because I'd feel like a real prick – I mean – I've been like a mess about this.

Dr. Knack: Ok. So, so we do need to talk about it. We do need to talk about it then. Um, when would you like to do that?

4:11

Noelle: I don't know, um, I have a doctors appointment in like a minute, um

Dr. Knack: Uh huh, uh huh. Well, I mean, are you saying you want to talk about it on the phone, or do you want to talk about it face to face, I'm not sure you know, exactly what you think would be helpful

4:33

Noelle: Um, I'm not sure either. Can I call you back in like? Can I think about a little bit and call you back?

Dr. Knack: Sure you can think about it for as long as you like. I'm going to be going into a meeting and then will be tied up for – the afternoon – um – I believe that I am up in Westchester on Friday.

4:58

Noelle: Um hum

Dr. Knack: Now honestly, I'd prefer to not have the conversation over the telephone, um, but you know – you think about what you want to do and um, let me know

5:10

Noelle: Ok

Dr. Knack: Ok

Noelle: Alright

Dr. Knack: Alright, I am glad that um, that I heard from you, I have been – you know - concerned about this, so I'm glad that you reached out, so we'll – uh, we'll be over this

Noelle: ok, great

Dr. Knack: Alright

Noelle: Ok, thank you

Dr. Knack: Take care.

Noelle: Bye.

Sergeant Ok, phone call is ended, um, conversation is closed, I'm turning off the recorder
